==========DIY HOME ENTERTAINMENT

Oil prices are obscene, so stay home and get your ya-yas from Internet Archive (donations always welcome)!

How to do your own Internet Archive Video Scheduling:
Mon-Sun, 6pm to 12am.
Aimed at families on a budget who enjoy old-time American TV;
there are also Asian, Latino, Canadian, Australian, and British shows, and other non-US programs.
If you can afford it, donate to IA; info's in the upper-righthand corner.

6 PM
Democracy Now! Daily (M-F) left-leaning news broadcast.
First 15 minutes gives you basic headlines; rest of show usually focuses on one major subject of the day, with interviews and liberal slant.
Optional: Voice of America audio headlines, or minute-by-minute streaming network news.
Vintage cartoons, or Mister Rogers for kids.

==========SIR ALFRED HITCHCOCK

https://archive.org/details/BBC-presents-AlfredHitchcock Modern versions of stories originally filmed by Hitch

https://archive.org/details/unmade-movies-hitchcocks-the-blind-man
Unmade Movies: Alfred Hitchcock's The Blind Man
Alfred Hitchcock and Ernest Lehman's unfinished screenplay, the follow-up to North by Northwest - completed by Mark Gatiss in 2015. Set in 1961, a famous blind jazz pianist, Larry Keating (Hugh Laurie), agrees to a radical new medical procedure - an eye transplant. The operation is a success but his new eyes are those of a murdered man, and captured on their retina is the image of his murderer. Larry and his new nurse, Jenny (Kelly Burke), begin a quest to track him down - before someone else dies. Adapted for radio by Laurence Bowen.

Clarence Thomas said the judiciary is threatened if people are unwilling to "live with outcomes we don't agree with."

He did not mention that his wife, Ginni Thomas, didn't agree with the outcome of the last election and so she plotted to overturn the results.
